

European Research
Council

Queen Mary
University of London

Political Language The Study of Terminology as a Tool in Political and Social History

Tuesday, 26 March 2013 at Queen Mary, University of London

10hr

Jean-Philippe Genet (Paris I) Welcome
and Miri Rubin (QMUL)

10:30hr

Christopher Fletcher
(Paris I-LaMOP)

Session 1. Chair: Phil Withington (Sheffield)

Profit and Damage: The pros and cons of using computers to analyse political discourse.

Silke Schwandt (Frankfurt)

Tracing Political Language in a Non-Political World

Andrea Gamberini (Milan)

Practices vs. Languages: Some remarks on an ongoing debate:
Northern Italy, thirteenth to fifteenth century

12hr30-13hr30

Lunch

13hr30

Aude Mairey
(Paris I-LaMOP)

Session 2. Chair: John Watts (Oxford)

English Poetry and Political Society in the later middle ages

François Foronda
(Paris I-LaMOP)

Mésurer l'émotion à partir de ses mots. L'expression de l'angoisse par les autorités du Principat du Catalogne au début de la guerre civile (jusqu'au 21 juin 1461)

15hr-15hr30

Tea

15hr30

Jan Dumolyn (Ghent)

Session 3. Chair: Jean-Philippe Genet (Paris I)

Guild ideology in late medieval Flanders

Christian Liddy (Durham)

The Language of Rights in Medieval English Towns