

BRITISH ACADEMY

for the humanities and social sciences

KING'S College
LONDON

Cultures of Voting in Pre-Modern Europe

SPEAKERS AND TOPICS INCLUDE

Paul Cartledge (Cambridge University): Not Just Voting but Being Counted: the cases of Ancient Greece

Valentina Arena (University College London): Roman Republican reflections on electoral practices

Cristina La Rocca (Università di Padova): Cultures of unanimity in Carolingian Councils

Barbara Bombi (University of Kent): Papal elections in the canonistic tradition from Gratian to John XXII

Andrea Guidi (Birkbeck): "Conforme al vivere civile et politico": Machiavelli's newly discovered proposal for electoral reform in 1512

Derek Hirst (Washington University in St Louis): Some Learning Curves in Voting in Seventeenth-Century England

Wyger Velema (Universiteit van Amsterdam): Dead and Buried after the Elections? Voting and Citizenship in the Batavian Revolution

10.00-19.00, Friday 26 June 2015

S8.08, Strand Building

King's College London

Strand Campus WC2R 2LS

Please register before 24 June 2015

by sending an email to

Dr Serena Ferente

serena.ferente@kcl.ac.uk

